

BEST COPY

AVAILABLE

10-426

Other
Page

Disputes Report

Bang-Jensen Tried

Only To See Dulles

The Central Intelligence Agency Wednesday disputed a report that Axel Bang-Jensen, Danish ambassador, had tried in vain to see Secretary Allen Dulles to tell him alleged Soviet espionage.

Secretary of State Alexander Haig issued this statement: "The CIA has no information about any meeting he did not have. It is not possible to divide."

Bang-Jensen had ample opportunity to see Dulles in his meetings with Secretary of State Alexander Haig. He had ample opportunity to see Dulles in his meetings with Secretary of State Alexander Haig. He had ample opportunity to see Dulles in his meetings with Secretary of State Alexander Haig.

Bang-Jensen had ample opportunity to see Dulles in his meetings with Secretary of State Alexander Haig. He had ample opportunity to see Dulles in his meetings with Secretary of State Alexander Haig. He had ample opportunity to see Dulles in his meetings with Secretary of State Alexander Haig.

FOIAb3b

CPYRIGHT